(VCE) course 2000-2001 by issuing necessary certificates following W.P.No. 9402/94 is illegal, arbitrary even after appearing in the examinations when the results of the other candidates were announced and violation of Article 14,19 and 21 of the Indian Constitution and Consequently direct the respondents to announce the results of the B.Ed.(VCE) course 2000-2001.

The petitioners, who are prosecuting the B.Ed., (VCE) course during the academic year 2000-2001, filed this writ petition aggrieved by the action of the respondents in not declaring the results.

This Court, while directing Rule Nisi, by order dated 15-05-2002, directed that the results of the petitioners should be declared. When the matter is taken up for consideration, it is brought to my notice by the learned counsel for both the parties that the issue involved in this writ petition is squarely covered by the decision of this Court in W.P.No.9402 of 1994 dated 22-08-1995, whereunder under identical circumstances, this Court directed that the results of the examinations of the petitioners therein should be declared and also that if the declaration of the results is in favour of the petitioners, necessary certificates should be issued.

Following the decision in W.P.No.9402 of 1994, dated 22-08-1995, this writ petition is disposed with a direction to the respondents that if the results which have already been declared are in favour of the petitioners, necessary certificates shall be issued. No costs.
